—AUGUST 4, 1903—

Gold is a very ordinary metal compared with radium, the new metal, worth $900,000 a pound.

Seelbach's new hotel in Louisville will probably be called "The Commonwealth."

Senator Gorman has virtually announced himself a Democratic candidate for President.

Wm. J. Bryan will be in Owensboro this week for the purpose of delivering a lecture.

Miss Lillian May, a Baltimore girl, was married last week to Lord Bagot, of London.

The rumor is revived that the Tennessee Central will, as soon as completed, pass into the hands of the Illinois Central.

And now they are saying that a Kentuckian led the mob at Danville, Ill. The same was said of the Wilmington mob. Are there no leaders of men outside of Kentucky?

Hon. W. J. Bryan is to open the Chautauqua at Owensboro. On Friday, August seventh, he will lecture on "The Value of an Ideal," mounting the platform promptly at 3 o'clock.

Another will of Gen. Cassius M. Clay has been found, having a later date than all others. It is a holograph, dated March 28, 1901, and makes Dora Clay Brock the principal executrix as well as legatee.

The Washington Post prints a cartoon headed "He's Gwine Back to Dixie." A negro is headed towards Kentucky, hunted by armed mobs from Delaware, Indiana and Illinois. Northern mobs are causing Kentucky to be over-run with negro refugees.

Joseph W. Folk has begun an active campaign for Governor of Missouri. As all the rascals in the state will fight him, he has a hard row to hoe. A candidate to be invincible must have the law-breakers for him. They are not for "Folk the Felon Fighter."

Judge Lockren, of St. Paul, has decided against Gov. Van Sant in his great case against the Northern Securities Company, Jas. J. Hill's celebrated "merger" of Northwestern railroad interests. The governor will take an appeal. The decision holds that the state law has not been violated.

Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, seems to have been outdone in China in suppressing the liberty of the press. Sheen Schien, a Pekin editor was beaten to death at the order of the Dowager Empress because he was a reformer. His punishment lasted for two hours, and the flesh on his back, arms and legs was reduced to ribbons.

Special Judge Robbins convened the Scott circuit court at Georgetown yesterday to try Caleb Powers for alleged complicity in the assassination of William Goebel. There will be considerable new evidence and a notable witness will be Henry E. Youtsey, now serving a life term for his share in the crime. The jury may be obtained from Bourbon county.

Hall's Family Pills are the best

Eczema

How it coddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales! Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum. The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to—they mitigate, but cannot cure. It proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic. Price 25 cents.

Col. T. C. Campbell, who is in charge of the prosecution of Gov. Goebel's assassins, will obtain again from Gov. Beckham a request to Gov. Durbin to deliver W. S. Taylor to Kentucky. In case this is refused a mandamus will be sought before the supreme court of the United States. Should one be granted and disobeyed, contempt proceedings will be begun.

The Livingston Banner is strongly urging the nomination of Charlie Grassham by the District Convention, for State Senator next Friday. All candidates of the anti-Thompson faction have withdrawn and only J. W. Gilbert, of Calloway, is an open candidate, but F. K. Grasty, of Trigg, and C. C. Grassham, of Livingston, are in a waiting attitude.

The Cynthia Democrat is giving excellent accounts of the Jett-White trial, now in progress there. The Democrat ridicules the flight of Capt. B. J. Ewen on the day before the trial began, because he was not promised a constant guard of soldiers. The Captain's show of timidity in a law-abiding Bluegrass county did not add to his reputation for bravery.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick.

BASE BALL.

Clarksville Club Here for a Series of Games.

Hopkinsville won the game at Clarksville Friday and lost Saturday's game. The score Friday was 13 to 10, and Saturday 7 to 0. The Clarksville team arrived here last night for a series of three games at Athletic park, beginning this afternoon.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Higgins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by R. C. Hardwick Druggist. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial Bottle free.

WITH THE SOUTHERN

Capt. McGehee Secures a Run in Virginia.

Capt. Parker McGehee, recently with the Illinois Central railroad, is now with the Southern, with headquarters at Alexandria, Va. He has a run out of Alexandria to a point south of Charlottesville. Capt. McGehee and wife left Gracey for Virginia this week.

The Cosmopolitan.

The Cosmopolitan for August is particularly noteworthy from three different aspects: First, every article is not only interesting in subject, but entertaining in style; second, it is a Midsummer Fiction Number, replete with brilliant short stories of love and adventure; third, its articles are profusely and finely illustrated. "Dramatic Schools," by David Belasco; an article on the meat-packing industry; Frank Moss's "The Tragedy of Policy in New York;" "Shakespeare in Modern Settings;" and "Romances of the World's Great Mines—The Klondike," all are illustrated with splendid photographs, and written in an entertaining way.

AUGUST WEATHER.

Figured Out By Marsh, the Ohio Prophet

Month of Intense Heat and Numerous Electrical Storms, With Considerable Rain.

Prophet Marsh says: August will be a month of intense heat and damaging storms, covering a greater portion of the entire country.

Damaging storms, high winds, electrical display and at times heavy rains will prevail over the Eastern States, covering New York, New Jersey, Maryland and New England, the Atlantic ocean and coasts.

Cyclones and electrical storms, with rain, wind and hail, over the West and Northwestern states.

Destructive storms over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois and the mountain districts. Rising streams and creeks will cause much damage to crops and property, and those living along the creeks and streams can look for sudden, dangerous rises.

Terrific cyclones and cloudbursts will occur on the gulf of Mexico, causing damage at Galveston, Tex., and along the Florida and Carolina coasts and states adjoining.

Fair stages of water will prevail in the rivers during the month, and at times dangerous rises may be expected on account of heavy rains, but these rises will be of short duration. The heavy rains over Savannah, Ga., will flood the lowlands, damaging the rice and cotton crops in that vicinity.

Between 3d and 6th—Extreme heat and principally dry weather will prevail over the entire country, causing many prostrations and deaths.

Between 7th and 12th—Severe storms will prevail generally, covering the entire country, very severe over the East, South and West, and upon all bodies of water; cyclonic storms, high wind and heavy rain over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee. These storms will be quite severe, but of short duration.

Between the 13th and 18th—Severe storms, high winds and heavy rainfall over the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, and very heavy rains over West Virginia; general storms and rainfall from Lake Huron southward to Texas, covering a belt from the Ohio to the Tennessee river. Storms, wind and heavy rains over the Gulf and South Atlantic States; cloudbursts and heavy rainfall over the Ohio river valleys and over Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee, causing streams to overflow, damaging crops. These storms will be more severe over central and northern Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia.

Between 20th and 23d—Heavy rains in the mountain regions of Pennsylvania and Virginia, severe gulf storms extending from Louisiana to Florida. This storm will also range over the states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

Between 25th and 31st—General rain and thunderstorms, with high winds over the entire country west of the Mississippi river, extending into Illinois and Tennessee.

BITTEN BY PET DOG.

And Fearing Hydrophobia a Madstone Was Applied.

Mrs. David Wood, of near Cerulean, was bitten by her pet dog one day last week. The animal acted in such a strange manner that it was feared it had hydrophobia and Mrs. Wood went to Paducah, where a madstone was applied to the wound.

EARTH'S DESTINATION.

Said to Be Flying with Incredible Speed Straight for Vegas.

An importance which relatively few persons are aware of attaches to an expedition which has just gone to Chili from the Lick observatory in California. Its object, says Collier's Weekly, is to find out whether we are all bound.

Everybody has heard that the solar system is flying swiftly toward the north. It is a plunging flight that carries us more than 43,000 miles straight through the ether every hour of the day and night. It is a motion that has nothing to do with the earth's annual revolution about the sun, except as it prevents that revolution from carrying the earth back turn and turn to the same spot in space.

In truth, we never get back to the same place. Every new year comes in with the globe at a point more than 300,000,000 miles nearer to a very bright northern star, named Vegas, than it was a year earlier. As far as the evidence now in hand goes, the flight of the sun toward the north is as straight as that of the arrow, but the path described by the earth, since it is compelled all the while to circle round and round the flying sun, is a great spiral.

And this we sweep onward, moving continually into new regions, running through what perils nobody can guess—perhaps none at all—and impelled by a force as mysterious as that which drew the unfortunate ship in the Arabian Nights to be wrecked on the mountain of Adamant.

It is this strange voyage of the sun and its worlds through the unexplored ocean of immensity that the Californian astronomers have gone to South Africa to investigate.

Now, the precise object of the expedition to Chili is to examine the light of the southern stars from which we are flying away. They have been much less studied than have the northern stars, to which we are drawing nearer. It is as if the people on the bow of a ship, after watching for a long time the effects of their approach to objects ahead, should visit the stern in order to note the recession of objects behind. Through a combination of such observations the speed and direction of the ship's motion could be deduced.

But there are many other absorbingly interesting questions relating to the organization of the universe, and our place and rank in it, which will be brought nearer to solution by the success of the exploration of the southern heavens, now beginning.

NURSES HAVE TO SLEEP.

How Some Girls Who Attend the Sick Are Abused.

A young nurse of my acquaintance, says Mary Moss, in the Atlantic, was found early one morning unconscious on the entry floor; upon inquiry the doctor learned that from Monday morning till Thursday night she had been without sleep, or even enough time off to bathe and change her clothes. Of course she was extremely foolish to permit such a thing, on the patient's account as well as her own, but it was her first private case, and feeling shy about obtruding personal wants in a time of general stress, she had relied on coffee and determination to pull her through. The stale joke: "Why, do you have to sleep?" I thought you were trained!" unfortunately contains not a grain of exaggeration. I have gone to a house where, after a day's nursing, a night spent in sponging a typhoid patient, at ten o'clock on the morning of the second day, the nurse was still in charge; no one had given her night lunch, breakfast, or even a cup of coffee. She had been on duty for 26 straight hours working strenuously all the time; not a member of the household seemed equal to taking her place, or indeed dreamt of doing so. Later it was rumored that this girl had become imtemperate.

Mistaken Kindness.

Rev. Dr. Lorimer, the minister at the Madison Avenue Baptist church, is responsible for this story, though he does not vouch for the truth of it, useful as it may be to point a moral: "A nestful of young linnets were in the corner of a field in India. Having lost their mother, they were cold and hungry. They flapped their featherless wings, thereby attracting the attention of a huge elephant which stood near by. 'Ah,' said the elephant, 'you poor little things. You have lost your mother and have nobody to nestle you. I am a mother and have a mother's heart. I will nestle you and keep you warm.' And thereupon the elephant sat upon the nest containing the poor little linnets."—N. Y. Times.
